

11/11/2020

To: Business & Human Rights Resource Centre

Regarding: Evil Bikes Response to recent published articles:

1. Union-Busting at sporting goods factory (Mizuno, Evil Bikes, Pivot, Cycles, CCM Sports). Web. 18 Oct. 2020. <<https://globalmayday.net/2020/10/18/myanmar-union-busting-at-sporting-goods-factory/>>.
2. Workers at Factories for Sporting Goods Companies Say Management Fired Them to Get Rid of Union. Web. 21 Aug. 2020. <<https://shadowproof.com/2020/08/31/sporting-goods-factories-fire-union-workers-covid19/>>.
3. Myanmar: Stop union-busting at sporting goods company. Web Campaign. <https://www.labourstartcampaigns.net/show\_campaign.cgi?c=4566>.

As a small, boutique company, Evil Bikes is very concerned with our workers' and suppliers' safety, health, and rights both at home and abroad. We have taken precautions to protect our workers and suppliers, especially in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. After becoming aware of libelous claims against our company, we immediately began an investigation. We are monitoring developments involving VIP in Myanmar.